

A Proclamation touching the Kings Maiesties Audit

The forme of a Proclamation now shortly to be holden and kept made according to the Statute reuenues of his highnesse Crowne, within the Countie of in the of 33 H 8 39 at the feast of Saint Michaell the Archangell now next comming. of for the for the Anno domini for the yeare ending

Here it is enacted by authority of Parliament, that every Auditor of the reuenues of the imperiall Crowne of this Realme (sometime belonging to the late Court of Augmentations, and now to his highnes Court of Eschequer) shall yearly and every yeare before the time of the Audit cause Proclamations to bee made in sundry Market Townes, in every County within the limits and circuit of their seuerall offices, to the end and intent that all and singuler Receiuers, Bailiffes, Collectors, Recuees, Farmers, and other Occupiers, Officers, and Ministers accomptable, and all others whatsoever having to do at that Audit, may the better be prepared with their mony, and al other things requisite for the finishing and clearing of their accounts there, as appertaineth.

Know yee therefore that his highnesse Auditor of the said reuenues, within the said County of doth, by this present Proclamation, notifie and declare to all and singuler Mayors, Sherriffes, Receiuers, Stewards, vnderstewards, Clarkes of Courts, Woodwardes, Bailiffs, Collectors, Recuees, Farmers, and to all other the Kings Maiesties Officers and Subiects, that his highnesse Audit for his foresaid reuenues, within the said County of for the yeare ending at the feast of S. Michaell the Archangell now next comming shall be kept and holden at in the and there shall beginne vpon morning, which shall bee the date of next, and there continued vntill at night then next following, the space of whole daies. Wherefore his highnesse said Auditor, on his Maiesties behalfe willeth and chargeth as well al and singuler his highnesse Stewards, vnderstewards, and Clarkes of Courts, or their sufficient Deputies, to be attendant at the Audit: and to bring thither with them, the Court Roules belonging to their seuerall Offices, for the said yeare, and all other yeares, wherof the profits be not yet answered: As also all and singuler Receiuers, Woodwardes, Bailiffs, Collectors, Recuees, Bedels, Farmers and al other his highnes Officers, Occupiers, and ministers accomptable, and all other his Subiects that owe to his Maiestie any arrerages, tenthes, rents reserved, or other duties, to appeare at the said Audit then and there to yeeld account and make payment of the same, and of al other issues, commodities and profits due to his highnesse, within the said And to bring then also with them, all Rentals, Letters Patents, Indentures, Leases, Copies, and Extracts of Court Roules, Warrants, Commissions, Tallies, Acquittances, and all other writings and things concerning any of the premisses. And therof not to fail, as they and euery of them tender their duties towards his highnes, and wil auoid the forfeiture of their seueral fees and offices and other the penalties (by sundry good Statutes) limited for punishment of all such as do not therein according to their duties. Dated the day of in the yeere of the Raige of our said most gracious soueraign Lord James, by the grace of God King of England, France, and Ireland, and the Defender of the faith &c. yeere of his reigne of Scotland

God saue the King.